

WORK COLLEGES CONSORTIUM

CRITERIA FOR MEMBERSHIP

ELIGIBILITY

All applicants must be recognized and approved as a work college by the U.S. Department of Education.

TO APPLY

Eligible institutions may apply for membership in the Consortium using the attached application. Applicants must provide evidence of their qualifications for membership according to the criteria enumerated here. Membership applications are reviewed by Consortium staff and submitted to the Presidents' Council for decision.

A decision will be made within 90 days of receipt of the application and materials.

Please Note:

All colleges which meet the federal criteria and are approved by the U.S. Department of Education are eligible to receive work colleges funding whether or not they are a member of the Work Colleges Consortium.

Membership in the Consortium is open to any educational institution that:

1. Is a public or private nonprofit, four-year, degree-granting college or university with a demonstrated commitment to community service;
2. Has operated a comprehensive student work-learning-service program for at least the two immediately preceding years before application to the WCC;
3. Provides students participating in the comprehensive work-learning-service program with the opportunity to contribute to their education and to the welfare of the community as a whole;

The term comprehensive student work-learning-service program means a program that:

1. Is an integral and stated part of the institution's educational philosophy and program;
2. Requires participation of all resident students for enrollment and graduation;
3. Includes learning objectives, evaluation, and a record of work performance as part of the student's college record;
4. Provides programmatic leadership by college personnel at levels comparable to traditional academic programs;
5. Recognizes the educational role of work-learning-service supervisors; and
6. Includes consequences for nonperformance or failure in the work-learning-service program similar to consequences for failure in the academic program.
